For example, in the October issue, you'll find the kind of variety which has made THEOLOGY TODAY lively reading: Andrew Greeley examines "Pop Psychology and the Gospel"; Mary Lee Daughterty uncoils "Serpent Handling as Sacrament in Appalachia"; Carl A. Rasche probes "The Human Potential Movement"; and William E. Phipps surveys the myths and mythologies about women in "Adam's Rib: Bone of Contention." In addition, Editor Hugh T. Kerr asks whether theologians have left the people behind; John Deedy looks at "The New Slavery" and William H. Willimon analyzes the new "legitimate" Oral Roberts. Start your subscription now and receive lively, well-written, provocative articles in THEOLOGY TODAY. (129 Hodge Hall.)

COACHES' CORNER

ALL THOSE WHO WANT TO LEARN BALLROOM DANCING: There will be lessons at 6:30 THIS FRIDAY NIGHT (22 Oct) in the Campus Center. Laura Engels will give the lessons.

Last week's FOOTBALL was definitely abnormal. Not only were there surprises and upsets, but unfortunate injuries, as well. We wish the injured a speedy and thorough recovery. In that action Brown and P-W fought to a scoreless draw, with both teams in tough defenses. In the second game Library Place upset P-W, 7-6, in a thriller. PTS HAS ACCEPTED THE CHALLENGE BY WESTMINSTER SEMINARY TO PLAY FOOTBALL--details on time & place will be forthcoming.

The next sport on the PTS agenda is CO-ED VOLLEYBALL. All dorms are encouraged to form their own teams. We hope to begin Thursday, 4 November, at 7 P.M.

Dear Friends at Princeton Seminary,

March 1st in Korea is the anniversary of a peaceful independence movement against Japanese rule in 1919. Traditionally church services and masses have been held throughout Korea to commemorate the day.

This year an ecumenical service (a mass) was held at the Myong Dong Cathedral. In order to recover human rights and restore democracy, a statement was read which was signed by twelve professors, ministers and priests. Their intention was not to topple the present government, but a declaration of their faith and conscience.

However, the signers and those connected with this case were arrested, placed in solitary confinement, were tried and convicted. These people are considered serious criminals according to the government reports in the Korean newspapers. In addition, the families are under 24-hour surveillance.

We, the wives of the defendants, realize that our husbands acted out of their Christian convictions. Therefore, we have requested the following of the authorities:

1) That the March 1st statement be made public or publicized in the Korean newspapers.
2) That the trials be open to the public.
3) That the 24-hour surveillance be dropped.
4) That our husbands be released.
5) That there be a halt to police violence.
6) That there be a halt to surveillance at worship and prayer services.
7) That there be a halt to Communist charges and psychological pressure against ministers.

As sisters in Christ, we would like to ask the following of you:

1) For your prayers - if possible at 10 a.m. on Thursday mornings, which is the same time that Korean Christians gather in secret places to pray together about present personal and societal problems.

2) That you study and search for a way to help us restore democratic order in our country.

3) That you send a group of Cristians to Korea to share with us in our prayer sessions, in the trials of our husbands, and in the difficulties which we are now facing.

We thank you for your prayers, concern and support.

GOOD STEWARDSHIP:

"'SIMON,' he said, 'you see this woman? I came into your house, and you poured no water over my feet, but she has poured out her tears over my feet and wiped them away with her hair.'" (Luke 7:44) This woman stands among us and before God as one who knows true faith and true giving. She gives movement, tears and care--in expression of her love of the one true God in Christ. Jesus looks beyond the action to the intent: "for she loved much" as the love of God within her molds her spontaneous response of reaching out and giving of herself.

November 15-19 is a week when we will all be challenged to so respond. The following nine causes--local, national and worldwide--have asked our support; some depend upon us in large part for survival:

PROPOSALS ACCEPTED	PROPOSED FUNDING
1. Emergency Relief Fund, Princeton Seminary	5 percent
2. International Student Fund, Princeton Seminary	10 "
3. Eastern Service Workers Association	3 "
4. The Community Council for Criminal Justice	10 "
5. Repair/relocation, 5 fire-bombed Las Vegas churches	30 "
6. Rural Community Action Ministry (Maine)	10 "
7. Roy Ahmagok Memorial Parish (Alaska)	7 "
8. Community Hunger Appeal of Church World Service (CROP)	10 "
9. Corrymeela Community (for reconciliation in Ireland)	15 "

You will receive a letter and a pledge statement. Please join with us in responding in a spirit of love to our sisters and brothers worldwide. Your concern counts. Thank you. The Stewardship Committee.

NOTES

1. MISS SIMPSON is a Reader's Digest Association Affiliate Artist, who will be in an Affiliate Artist Residency on the Seminary campus this week (and five more weeks during this academic year). First Prize winner of the 1975 Naumburg Voice Competition, she is a graduate of Temple University and The Juilliard School. She has received awards from the William Sullivan Foundation and the Martha Baird Rockefeller Foundation. A highly successful choral conductor, accredited teacher of Black Studies and accomplished pianist, she was a regional winner in the recent Metropolitan Opera auditions and has performed with the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra. She will be guest soloist with the Minnesota Symphony Orchestra this season. The young soprano recently made her debut at the Lincoln Center in New York City. An "informance" is an informal occasion on which the artist will sing, answer questions, talk with her audience--a real opportunity to get to know this charming, versatile, vital person.

DAVID ARNOLD, who will sing the baritone lead in the Oratorio, is a member of the voice faculty of Westminster Choir College and sings at Trinity Church, Princeton. Educated at the Chicago Conservatory, the Indiana University School of Music and the New England Conservatory (Boston), he has sung major roles in more than 20 operas and is a frequent guest soloist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Las summer he sang the role of General Junius in Britten's "Rape of Lucretia," in Spoleto; sang a concerrt in Spoleto and another at the American Embassy, Rome; and enjoyed a concert tour of Austria and Yugoslavia.

DR. JACKS, a member of the Princeton Seminary Speech Department, is a graduate of DePauw University and Princeton Seminary. He is widely known through this area for his team ministry in music ranging from early church works to folk/rock hymns.

MR. LITTON is also Organist and Choirmaster of Trinity Church, Princeton. A consultant member of the Joint Comission on Church Music of the Episcopal Church in the United States, he is a member of the Princeton University Concerts Committee and of the Board of Directors, the Columbus Boychoir School.

"New Land, New Covenant" was sponsored by Princeton Seminary, The Brick Presbyterian Church in New York City and the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church in response to a concern that the national Bicentennial celebration include some expression of the religious bases for the founding of this country. Dr. Hanson has used 17th and 18th century tunes as bases for his score, adding his original melodies for three anthems. Whether as composer, conductor or educator (he is Director of the Eastman School of Music), he has won universal acclaim for his accomplishments. His many commissioned works include every medium and form, and he has throughout his career actively encouraged developing American performers and composers. For the text Howard Clark Kee has combined Scriptural passages with contemporary poetry and early American literature, as well as verses from hymns of the American colonial and Revolutionary periods. Dr. Kee is Rufus Jones Professor of the History of Religion at Bryn Mawr College. NB: THE TUESDAY EVENING PERFORMANCE IS FOR THE GENERAL PUBLIC; there is no admission charge, but ALL SEATS ARE RESERVED. For tickets, telephone: The Reverend Donald G. Lewis, Jr., Princeton Seminary (609) 921-8300. The THURSDAY evening performance is for the Princeton Seminary Community.

2. Dr. Perlin since 1970 has been a member of the Advisory Council to Princeton University's Health SErvice and of the editorial board of Suicide. He received a bachelor's degree, summa cum laude, from Princeton University in 1946 (as a member of the Class of '47) and his M.D. from Columbia University in 1950. His career includes appointments as Acting Chief of Psychosomatic Services and, alter, Chief of the Section on Psychiatry of the Laboratory of Clinical Science, the National Institute of Mental Health; Fellow of the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences in Stanford, California; Chief of the Division of Montefiore Hospital, New York City; Director of Clinical Care and Training and of Psychiatric Training at the Henry Phipps Psychiatric Clinic, The Johns Hopkins Hospital; Visiting Fellow at Princeton University; Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr., Fellow in Medicine and Ethics, and Visiting Professor at Oxford University. BLOOD & MORE BLOOD:

Our thanks to all those students, faculty members and staff members who donated their blood on Tuesday, 9 November. The Bloodmobile visit was most successful: The Seminary provided 98 points, and local business donated 70 pints, a total of 168. BUT the Seminary quota for 1976 is 150 pints; we need another 21 pints before the end of December to complete our quota for the year. Please stop at my office (133-134 Hodge Hall) to register for a donation at the Princeton Medical Center if you missed the Bloodmobile and wish to participate. Thanks again. Clarence E. Reed, Co-Chairman, Princeton Blood Program.

PEPSICOLA REFUND BANK:

Because so many people have lost money in the soda-vending machines a "Refund Bank" has been established at the Housing Office. Please stop in, report your loss (indicating the machine and the apparent reason for the loss), and a refund will be made. This procedure will also, we hope, improve service--prompt reports may induce the concessionaire to take faster action to repair the offending machine(s). C.E. Reed (133-4 Hodge)

SEE SELF AS CAMERA SEES YOU!

Please pick up your (FREE!) copy of the current DIRECTORY immediately from the Public Relations office (10 Administration Building). This is your opportunity to have any changes or corrections made to your data. A. Rayner, editor.

MAIL: for Males & Females DID YOU KNOW--you off-campus students--that you have MAILBOXES in the basement of Hodge Hall? They are to the right of the back entrance (off the parking lot). Mrs. McWilliams, the Receptionist/Switchboard Operator, can tell you your own box number. For first-class mailings: DOES THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE HAVE YOUR CURRENT ADDRESS? C. Wagner.

YOU'RE NOT TOO LATE: for CPE--BUT------ Several students have stopped by my office in the past two weeks to inquire if it was too late to apply for a summer of CPE. NOTES

1. Now, with Congress in recess and President-elect Carter making vital plans for the new administration, is our opportunity to voice our concern for a world grain reserve. Such a measure could help avoid repetition of the famine which destroyed thousands of lives in 1973-74. Please join us as we make plans for campus advocacy efforts.

2. Dr. Ramsey has been a Princeton University faculty member since 1944. The noted teacher-scholar in Christian ethics and social theory has recently specialized in legal and medical ethics. In 1968 and 1969 he was the Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr., Foundation Visiting Professor of Genetic Ethics at Georgetown University Medical School. He delivered the 1969 Lyman Beecher Lectures on Medical Ethics at Yale University, a series sponsored jointly by Yale's Divinity School and School of Medicine. He is the author of eight volumes and numerous articles on war, civil disobedience and medical ethics. He is a member of the editorial boards of World View, Religion and the Public Order, and Theology Today, and was general editor of a series of scholarly monographs, "Studies in Christian Ethics."

3. A new, on-going celebration of Holy Communion will begin in the Advent season. Held in the Main Lounge of the Campus Center, the Sacrament will occur during a regular evening meal (just bring your tray into the lounge). There will be informal sharing, singing and celebrating around the dinner table. The idea of Christian community will be stressed, the Communion being celebrated in an early-church tradition. The evening prayer service the same day will serve as an (optional) preparation for Communion. The celebration is offered in response to community wishes, made evident on Chapel Information Day. [Continued, p 3.]

4. Dr. Metzger, who is the Seminary's George L. Collord Professor of New Testament Language and Literature, was elected chairman of the Revised Standard Version Bible Committee during the summer of 1975. The Committee, under the aegis of the Division of Education and Ministry of the National Council of Churches of Christ, is preparing a second edition of the R.S.V. Old Testament. His accession to the presidency led to a shipment of the records of the committee's deliberations, reference books, etc., to the Seminary campus and to the appearance on campus of some of the most distinguished scholars in the field for discussions of their work.

5. If you have a teachable skill to offer the Seminary Community, contact Sandy Brawders (423 Brown Hall).

6. If you have a talent you would like to share with the community, contact Linda Foley (452-1025).

Join us for an interesting, informative evening.

11. Katazoma, an ancient technique, requires that the picture be dyed through a pattern onto rice paper. Mr. Watanabe gently crushes, then partly smooths his paper before applying a glutinous steamed mixture of rice, salt and bran through a layer of victoria lawn spread over his hand-cut stencil, laid upon the paper. Both the amount and the thickness of the "paste" affect the design. When this has reached the desired clarity he strips off all but the stencil and paper and allows the paper to dry; dye is then spread uniformly over the paper and washed. The same process must be used for each color desired. To this old form Mr. Watanabe has added his own totally modern style, but his manner of bringing to life people and events of the Bible is "so unmistakably Oriental that all Japanese people find it easy to understand." The exhibit may be seen the following day, 2 - 5 P.M. in the narthex and hallways of the Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Princeton Junction; and the artist will participate in the morning service of worship at 11 o'clock, by showing slides of his works.

Nevertheless, the Stewardship Fund Drive surges onward.
